

Position Description: Treasurer, Campus Student Associations (CSA)

ABOUT AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

Mission Statement: Within the Catholic intellectual tradition and acting in Truth and Love, Australian Catholic University is committed to the pursuit of knowledge, the dignity of the human person and the common good.

At ACU we pride ourselves on offering a welcoming environment for everyone. At the same time, we are a university committed to standing for something clear. We stand up for people in need and causes that matter. ACU's Mission is central to the University and informs every area – integrating the dignity of the human person, the common good, and ethical and social justice considerations into our core activities of student learning and teaching, research, and service.

We know that our people make us a university like no other. It's your values, action and passion that makes the difference. Whatever role you may play in our organisation: it's what you do that defines who we are.

In order to be agents of change in the world, we all need to see life through the eyes of others. We believe that our role as a university is to inspire and equip people to make a difference – and that means cultivating their ability to act and think empathetically.

Student engagement, leadership and service are integral to ACU's Mission and identity and student leaders play a crucial role in implementing the Mission of the University and promoting the social, intellectual, cultural, and spiritual welfare of their fellow students and informing University strategy and processes.

DEFINITIONS

Executive means the Campus Student Association President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary of a Campus Student Association; the Executive is responsible for the day-to-day management of the Campus Student Association.

Council means the governing body of a Campus Student Association consists of the Executive positions plus a pre-determined number of Councillors, who do not have specific responsibility but from whom the Campus Student Association can draw to fill casual vacancies.

Association means a Campus Student Association as a body.

ABOUT ACU STUDENT ASSOCIATIONS

Each campus has a Campus Student Association (CSA) which is governed by Statute 9 and a Constitution CSAs provide advocacy, support, and social activity for all students on their campus.

Coordination at a national level is achieved through the Australian Catholic University National Student Association \(ACUNSA\) comprising the President of ACUNSA, the Campus Student Association Presidents and an Indigenous, International, Postgraduate and Online student representative. ACUNSA is the premier student association at ACU.

ACUNSA and the Campus Student Associations are supported by the Student Life Unit of the Student Experience ~~Support Services~~ Directorate with training. Student Life oversees student associations' training and the financial and risk management of the associations' programs, events and activities.

ACUNSA and the Campus Student Associations work closely with the Student Life Unit and specifically the Student Life Coordinator and the Student Life Officers on each Campus.

POSITION PURPOSE

The CSA Treasurer is responsible for ensuring sound administration of the Association's finances and assists the President in the setting and reconciliation of the annual budget.
