

Position Description: Vice-President, Campus Student Associations (CSA)

ABOUT AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

Mission Statement: Within the Catholic intellectual tradition and acting in Truth and Love, Australian Catholic University is committed to the pursuit of knowledge, the dignity of the human person and the common good.

At ACU we pride ourselves on offering a welcoming environment for everyone. At the same time, we are a university committed to standing for something clear. We stand up for people in need and causes that matter. ACU's Mission is central to the University and informs every area – integrating the dignity of the human person, the common good, and ethical and social justice considerations into our core activities of student learning and teaching, research, and service.

We know that our people make us a university like no other. It's your values, action and passion that makes the difference. Whatever role you may play in our organisation: it's what you do that defines who we are.

In order to be agents of change in the world, we all need to see life through the eyes of others. We believe that our role as a university is to inspire and equip people to make a difference – and that means cultivating their ability to act and think empathetically.

Student engagement, leadership and service are integral to ACU's Mission and identity and student leaders play a crucial role in implementing the Mission of the University and promoting the social, intellectual, cultural, and spiritual welfare of their fellow students and informing University strategy and processes.

DEFINITIONS

Executive means the Campus Student Association President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary of a Campus Student Association; the Executive is responsible for the day-to-day management of the Campus Student Association.

Council means the governing body of a Campus Student Association consists of the Executive positions plus a pre-determined number of Councillors, who do not have specific responsibility but from whom the Campus Student Association can draw to fill casual vacancies.

Association means a Campus Student Association as a body.

ABOUT ACU STUDENT ASSOCIATIONS

Each campus has a Campus Student Association (CSA) which is governed by Statute 9 and a Constitution CSAs provide advocacy, support, and social activity for all students on their campus.

Coordination at a national level is achieved through the Australian Catholic University National Student Association \(ACUNSA\) comprising the President of ACUNSA, the Campus Student Association Presidents and an Indigenous, International, Postgraduate and Online student representative. ACUNSA is the premier student association at ACU.

ACUNSA and the Campus Student Associations are supported by the Student Life Unit of the Student Experience Directorate with training. Student Life oversees student associations' training and the financial and risk management of the associations' programs, events and activities.

ACUNSA and the Campus Student Associations work closely with the Student Life Unit and specifically the Student Life Coordinator and the Student Life Officers on each Campus.

POSITION PURPOSE

The CSA Vice-President assists the President and acts for the President if they are unable to perform their duties. The Vice-President oversees committees and is the key liaison with campus Clubs and Societies.

STIPEND

The CSA Vice-President receives an annual stipend which is equivalent to 25% of the Research Training Program Stipend base level (indexed annually). In 2024 the stipend is approximately $7,708.

NB: The stipend is not a salary or a wage: the President is not paid for the hours worked. Rather the stipend is provided in recognition of the workload of the role which includes regular attendance at meetings and events across the University.

TRAVEL

This role requires travel to other campuses approximately once per year.

EXPECTED HOURS OF COMMITMENT

The CSA Vice-President can expect to devote at least 8 - 10 hours per week to this role. Students should consider this very carefully when nominating for election.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

According to the Constitution, the Vice-President's duties are as follows:

1. Assist the President and act as President if there is a vacancy in the position of President, or where the President is otherwise unable to act.
2. Act as chair of Association sub-committees.
3. Represent the Association on the ACU Clubs and Societies Committee.

In addition to these duties, the Vice-President is expected to:

1. Represent the Campus Student Association and the University in a manner that fosters and champions a culture of belonging, respect and collaboration between the Council and the CSA members by:
 - i. Consulting widely with the student body about student issues and activities.
 - ii. Attending major Campus functions as appropriate (e.g. Graduation, Opening and Closing Liturgies) or other significant University or Campus activities.
2. Work with ACU student and staff stakeholders to achieve the objectives of ACUNSA and the Campus Student Association by:
 - I. Working collaboratively with other members of the Executive, Council and Association to achieve the Association's objectives.
 - II. Actively contributing to the planning, development, and implementation of the strategic and operational plans of the Association.
 - III. Working collaboratively with Campus Club and Societies, to ensure they achieve their objectives.
3. Work with the Campus Student Association President to assist with the internal management of the Campus Student Association to ensure it functions effectively by:
 - I. Attending all meetings of the Executive, Council and Association including regular meetings with Student Life staff.
 - II. Regularly communicating with the President on all activities being undertaken within the Campus Student Association.
 - III. Reporting regularly to the Executive and Council on the activities of the committees and sub- committees.

- IV. Coordinating and driving the Association’s campaigning and membership activities.
 - V. Communicating events and information of the Association and of the University, including Student Life staff, to students where appropriate.
4. Being accountable to the University and the Campus Student Association members for the sound financial management of the Association and good stewardship of resources, including presenting audited accounts annually to Campus Student Association members and all students via public meetings and traditional and social media.
 5. At all times, act lawfully, with integrity and uphold the internal processes and vision of the Campus Student Association and the Mission of the University.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The CSA Vice-President must be an enrolled ACU student at the time of nomination, election and during the entire course of the term of office.

The following characteristics would contribute to success in the role of CSA Vice-President:
