

Information for Students who commenced the Bachelor of International Development Studies degree prior to (before) 2024.

If you commenced prior to 2024, the following units have been approved by the course coordinator to take the place of some of the units in your course map for the remainder of your degree. Each unit has been carefully selected for its capacity to fulfil the overall learning outcomes of your course, and for relevant content and skills developed in the alternative units provided.

Unit Code	Unit Title	Credit Points	Phase-out plan
200-level units
DVST204	Project Management for Development	10cp	On offer 2024 semester 2
OR GEOG219 (approved substitute unit for DVST204)	Geography Research and Project Management	10cp	On offer 2024 and each year
DVST205	Peace and Conflict	10cp	Not on offer
OR POLS213 (approved substitute unit for DVST205)	Security, Terrorism and Human Rights	10cp	On offer 2024, 2025 and each year
300-level units
DVST303	Development Advocacy	10cp	Not on offer
OR HUMA331 (approved substitute unit DVST303)	Big Ideas: Social Enterprise and Innovation	10cp	On offer 2024, 2025 and each year
GLST305 (approved unit substitute for DVST202 Preparation for Immersion)	Global Studies Research Project	10cp	On offer 2024, 2025 and each year
HUMA330 (approved unit substitute for DVST306 Working in Development)	Community Engagement: Placement	10cp	On offer 2024, 2025 (semester 2) and each year

Part B : Community Development unit

Complete exactly 10 credit points from the following:

Unit Code	Unit Title	Credit Points	Phase-out plan
YSED303	Community Development	10cp	On offer 2025 and each year

Please note:

Students who commenced the degree in 2024 should follow the 2024 course map and course advice.