

Freedom, autonomy and responsibility

Finding the balance in Catholic education and the law in a global context.

A conference hosted by Australian Catholic University in collaboration with The Kellogg Institute for International Studies and the Institute for Educational Initiatives, University of Notre Dame (USA); the Congregation for Catholic Education; and the European Association for Education Law and Policy.

Hear from a range of leading international scholars on contemporary issues in the relationship between religion and the law in the context of Catholic education. This collaborative enterprise seeks to create a forum for legal and educational experts to cast light on the changing situation for Catholic education in legal contexts around the world and forge new paths through real and emerging challenges.
